

Installation example

In the example the MODIG AIR is receiving signal from the HDMI output of a High Definition satellite receiver and modulating it in a terrestrial RF output channel. The DVB-T output channel is mixed with the rest of the channels of the installation with an inverted TER 2 splitter, being able to be tuned in all the TV sets. The MODIG AIR programming is done through a mobile phone or tablet via Bluetooth with the free application Fte Pro Air.